

Commitment & Accountability

1. What is something you are committed to?

2. Why are you committed to this?

3. How do you hold yourself accountable? In other words, what specific steps do you take to make sure you follow-through with your commitment?

4. Identify a team goal that you want to be committed to. What is it and why is that commitment worthwhile?

5. List action steps you and your team can take for how you will maintain accountability for the commitment identified.

As a leader, the first step in improving the accountability of others is ensuring your own personal accountability. From there, your focus can shift to leadership accountability and ensuring complete group accountability. Here is some space to take notes on the following topics:

1. Group Commitment:

2. Group Accountability:

3. Leadership & Commitment Accountability:
