

The developing brain, aged 12-21 years old, incurs far greater levels of damage than a fully developed adult brain and is highly susceptible to addiction.

